Hedda comes to Nash!

She's mean at the beginning and even meaner at the end. A more repellent personality would be hard to imagine, and yet Hedda Gabler is one of the eternal fascinators of the world stage. Since she sprang from the imagination of the Norwegian playwright Henrik Ibsen in 1890, this cold-hearted anti-heroine has maintained a tight grip on the attention of audiences across the globe. So what is the mystery of her attraction? No matter how many times we encounter her, Hedda remains strangely inscrutable.

New Farm Nash Theatre is proud to bring this wonderful play to our stage.
Just two more performances to go. Don't miss out!

Call out for Front of House and Bar staff...

How would you like a FREE ticket to see our upcoming production – A Midsummer Night's Dream? Here's how you can. We need Front of House and Bar staff for all our shows this year.

What's involved? Read on...

Front of House staff assist in the set-up of the box office, greet patrons, sell tickets, programs and raffle tickets. For less than an hour's work, you get a FREE ticket to see the show on a night of your choice – even the night you do the Front of House! Bar staff assist in the set-up of the bar and operate the bar (serving patrons, making tea and coffee, pouring wine, selling chocolates, crisps and cake) before the show and during intermission. While your time commitment is around the same as Front of House, your duties are spread out over the night. And for your efforts, a FREE ticket to see the show on a night of your choice.

Contact Brian White directly at profwhite@bigpond.com or via the Nash email or phone if you can offer your services for a night.

Get involved with Nash!

If you can use a hammer; sew a piece of fabric; are handy on the computer and love designing; have a passion for meeting and greeting people. Nash needs you.

We are currently updating our files of handy people – people who loved to be involved but who don't necessarily want to be treading the boards – there is always work to be done before we get to that point.

If you are interested in building sets; creating or finding props; sewing and searching for costumes; happy to work behind the bar; on front of house; being a stage manager or operating light and sound, then send us your details and enjoy the excitement of being involved with a production. Email us at nashtheatre4@bigpond.com

Vale

Vale to Frances Tiplady, who died recently after a long battle with cancer. Her husband, John, designs the Nash publicity banners. He also appeared in The Merchant of Venice and Rehearsal for Murder. Last year Nash patrons supported Frances' daughter, Catherine, when she entered the 'Walk for Cancer' to raise funds for cancer research. Our sympathies go to the Tiplady family at this sad time.
